Terrible Experience

About 2 o'clock Tuesday morning of last week the home of Mr. and Mrs Oscar Paul near Andrew Chapel, was completely destroyed by fire. Their married son, Will was taken ill with pneumonia at the Paul home and at this time was just able to sit up. Mr. Paul was suffering of heart troub-at the time and was so ill that when the house was discovered to be on fire he had to be carried out and the bed on which he was taken was all of Chicago. that was saved, the family just caping before the roof fell in. The, went to the home of Mrs. Issan Watson a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul and about noon that day Mr. Paul quietly passed away. His Mary Finnegan very condition was serious and no doubt the excitement hastened his death. She is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Cox of once and is still there.
